

Steve Houser ~ August 17, 2008 Prayer

Dear God,
Heavenly Father,
Creator of All Things
Lord over all
Blessed and Most High- high upon Your throne,

You are to be worshipped Holy God
You and only You are due the praises of Your people.
There will be none before You.

Men's hearts are restless, always seeking.
But You, oh God are forever to be praised.
Lord, give me a focused mind and a fervent heart that I may pursue You day and night.

When awake and in my dreams may I be seeking You,
Your wisdom and Your ways.
Humbly I approach You,
covered in the redemptive name of Jesus

Mold me and make me into the image of Your Son.
